Nason Contracting Group Ltd. Launches New Website

Nason Contracting Group Ltd., a subsidiary of Bird Construction, is pleased to announce the launch of its new website at www.nason.ca.

The new site highlights Nason's areas of expertise by showcasing a number of full-screen photographs along with detailed descriptions of their featured projects. An interactive timeline allows users to scroll through the company's past and present. As an integrated team that can either perform as a general contractor or as a major trade contractor, the new site accurately portrays Nason's capabilities.
